This is a 2-day workshop for professional healers and laymen interested in learning about Peter Mandel's Esogetic Colorpuncture. It will provide a thorough introduction to the theories of the work and will teach you specific treatments for healing with light.

The topics which will be addressed in this weekend include:

- Theories of color application and balancing. Latest research regarding the effects of light and color on the body and psyche
- Overview of the Esogetic Colorpuncture healing system
- An introduction to the study of the energetic stages of disease development using Kirlian photography Energy Emission AnalysisM. Related treatments to support the body in its hormonal balancing detoxing (lymph drainage) and regeneration
- Dream Zone Therapy: how to stimulate healing dream processes through application of color
- Peter Mandel's Esogetic Model or paradigm for bodymind healing
- Simple, home use Colorpuncture treatments to support the body's natural healing processes in regards to nervous system stress, colds and bronchitis, spinal relaxation, pain and headaches, immune strengthening, and learning problems
- Introduction to Mandel's Esogetic Sound Therapies

It is a prerequisite for the Esogetic Colorpuncture in Professional Certification courses. We place a strong emphasis on hands-on practice of treatments and personal experience of Colorpuncture therapies.
